

DÏM'-E, v., DUM'-E, v. tr. To make sonorous, big, as the voice. Oðime uyu ke itöñ, He makes his voice big in his throat.

DÏM'-E, v. intr. To resound, be sonorous, noisy. Ekömö oðime ke ufök, The drum makes a big noise in the house. Uyu oðime ke itöñ, His voice is sonorous. Oðime anam utüm, He works strongly, or, with a bustle.

Der. n., Uðime-ntibi.

DÏ-ÖK'-HÖ, III., v. tr. (Diök. I.) To irritate, incense. Ikä orü ödiökhö mi ke ësèt, That word irritates me. Ödiökhö fi ke ësèt ye ami, It incenses you against me. Others, To surfeit.

DÏ-ÖS, v. tr. & intr. To climb. Ib., Ef., Düñ.

DÖB'-Ö. See Däbä.

DÖS, v. tr. 6. With inua. To interpose. Mö ödön inua kësèt, They object to the thing. Others, They give a charge concerning it.

Der. n., Udön-inua, v. ikä.

DÖS, v. tr. Ib., Dön akam, To pray. Ef., Böñ.

DU-Ä, v. intr. 4. To come far down, as a garment; to be flowing.

5. To fall out, result in, as a divination. Idiön öduä owo ke ëbüd, v., unen, Idiön directs the sacrifice of a goat or fowl.

DU-AT', v. intr. 3. To chatter, perhaps loudly in anger. Spoken by some of the monkey.

DÜB'-O, v. tr. To silence, quiet. Odübo uyüm, He silences the noise. Ödübo eköñ, He quiets the strife, warfare.

DU-EN'-DU-EN, adv. Smooth; shining, e.g., any thing polished. Etië duen-duen, It is highly polished.

DÜM'-O, II. v. tr. 2. To burn. Mö

ödümo adan, idümoke kande, They burn oil, not candles.

DU-OR', v. intr. 2. To fall or hang down, as the end of a napkin which should be tied up. Used by some as Syn. of Kpöm.

DU-ÖK', v. tr. 15. To overwhelm. Mfat öduök enye, Mfat quite covers him.

16. Trop. To shed, throw, as a glittering object its lustre. Mba esie öduök idañ, v., möñ okuk, Its wing glistens like plating or gilding.

DU-ÖK'-HÖ, v. intr. & ref. 1. To fail in accomplishing a purpose or agreement.

2. To throw one's-self upon. Mö öduökhö ke udia, They fall ravenously on the food.

DU-ÖS'-Ö, v. intr. To lurch, as a ship.

DU-ÖT', v. tr. To make inert, feeble. Idem öduöt mi, I feel indisposed. Syn., Mem.

DU-ÖT', v. intr. To be heavy. Spoken of rain. Ëðim öduöt, v., edep öduöt, The rain falls heavily.

DÜR'-O, v. tr. To rest on. Odüro ke mben, It is brimful.

DUT, II. v. intr. & tr. To be stringy, tough, wiry. Unam odut, The beef is tough. Idem odut enye, v., etië enye idut-idut, His sinews are prominent.

Der. a. & adv., Idut-idut, and udut-udut.

DU-RU', v. tr. To pick up, gather; to collect one by one. Used by some of small, by others of distant things.

Der. n. Ndutu.

DU-TUK'-HÄ, v. intr. To be afflicted, tormented. Odutukhä etiëti, He is much afflicted.