

b^waði the gums.
 b^waðiro my gums.
 b^waahō to be mute.
 b^wāīī balloon fish.
 b^wairi black paint.
 b^wamera a bird related to baeho,
 'buse chauve'.
 b^waṇū [M] anchor (cf. b^wo^w 2).
 b^wao top of the bottom posts of
 the round house where the roof
 is attached to the wall.
 b^waʔa in:
 nīab^waʔa the groin.
 b^wāʔāwā roofing of straw with
 roots placed outward.
 b^wāāʔī to go all the way round
 something.
 b^wara the forehead (cf. [M]
 b^waʔā).
 b^waraanī his forehead.
 b^waraya having a receding hair-
 line (cf. b^wara, ya).
 b^waro crest of a rooster.
 b^waro meo.
 b^waʔā [M] the forehead (cf.
 b^wara).
 b^waʔaye small taro field.
 b^wawīī dull, of a point.
 b^wepōō to be drunk.
 b^weu to be clean, cleared, more
 or less level (of ground).
 b^wē many, numerous.
 b^wēʔē a mark representing something.
 b^wēʔē tivi the high-water
 mark of a flood.
 (possibly in nib^wēʔē 'time for,
 of, something')
 b^wēʔī in:

ʔob^wēʔī to close something.
 ʔob^wēʔī to cover completely.
 ub^wēʔī to close something.

b^wii 1. the last of something,
the end.

b^wii 2. variety of taro.

b^wīʔinī a heap of yams or other food.

b^wiwi a cowry (larger than waðiði).

C

cituanē the traditional right-
 hand man of the chief who
 served as his messenger.
 (presumably borrowed)

Ç

çiiḅ the non-native rat.
 (presumably borrowed)

D

dā day, light.

dae 1. something, thing.

dae 2. in:
 dodae something woven; a mat,
 clothing.

daeṣə an encounter, meeting
 (cf. ṣə 1).

dāē a tree with hard wood used
 to make warclubs (grows in red soil and dry forest).

damiʔi clear weather (cf. dā, miʔi).

daʔa 1. [M] way, manner (cf.
 betu).

daʔa 2. wide.

dāʔī to weep.